Help celebrate our thirteenth anniversary and immerse yourself in our photographic history. You would not expect a photojournalistic look inside medium and maximum security prisons to reveal smiles, puppy kisses, and warmth. Puppies Behind Bars has been training prison inmates to raise working dogs since 1997. During that time, we have been fortunate enough to have select photographers and scores of media bring their equipment and talent inside prison walls to photograph the inmates who spend their time helping others. We invite you to take a look at inmates who have committed serious crimes in their lives but have begun a new course, dedicated to raising puppies to help the disabled and to help keep America safe.
